Equivalent Fractions Challenge

9 Is this statement true or false? Explain your answer.

If both the numerator and the denominator of a fraction are prime numbers then the fraction must be in its simplest form.

ANSWERS

9 True – there are no common factors (unless numerator and denominator are equal!).